ROUGH RIDING MARS SPORT

STEWARDS AT PALMETTO PARK HAVE OCCA-SION TO DISCIPLINE THREE JOCKEYS.

Robert Davies, of Toronto, Sees His Good Colt, Liberty Hall, Carry 125 Pounds to Victory in Stake Race-Public Has Losing Day.

Charleston, S. C., March 20.—Big fields, made up of the poorer class of horses, combined with frequent instances of rough riding, brought about unsatisfactory racing at Palmetto Park this afternoon. The public found it difficult to locate the winners. The most serious offenders in the rough riding ine were McTaggart, Kennedy and Butwell. The stewards inflicted fines on the trio.

Robert Davies' Liberty Hall again demonstrated superior class when he won the Pine Forest Inn Stakes, of the gross value of $1,200. He was aided to success by the good horsemanship of T. Koerner, who rode desperately near the end and managed to get his mount in front in the last few strides. Yorkville, after being responsible for a mixup at the start, secured a considerable advantage and loomed as the likely winner in the last furlong, but weakened finally. The performance of Solar Star, an added starter that ran third, was impressive.

The selling handien at one wile and a sixteenth

Yorkville, after being responsible for a mixup at the start, secured a considerable advantage and loomed as the likely winner in the last furlong, but weakened finally. The performance of Solar Star, an added starter that ran third, was impressive.

The selling handicap at one mile and a sixteenth was attended by a close finish, Any Port scoring over Lochiel after a hard and well sustained stretch drive. The race was marked by frequent interference. Dr. R. L. Swarenger, entirely overlooked in the betting, was returned the winner of the opener, in which a poor lot furnished the contest. Rough riding soon after the start was responsible for Gay Bird being crowded to a fall. The colt was a supposed "good thing" and had been backed extensively. Moncreif's showing in the second race in which he beat good opposition, represented a distinct improvement over his previous effort. Merman, which finished second to Bertis in the seventh race, was claimed by W. A. Massey from Capt. P. M. Walker for $575.

Jockey Borel was suspended for the remainder of the week by starter Dade.

For the first time during the meeting the stewards took notice of rough riding and as a result several of the riders were fined. McTaggart was fined $50 in the first race, Butwell $50 in the first race, and Cheer Up, which had the inside position, came out of the mix-up badly cut down.

Robert Davies, the Canadian turfman who is racing a pretentious stable here in charge of C. T. Patterson, was a visitor to the course this afternoon, and witnessed Liberty Hall's victory in the Pine Forest Inn Stakes.

Some fast trials were shown at Palmetto Park this morning. The track was in excellent condition. Some of the best moves were:

Benedictina—Five-eighths in 1:03.

Bush—Five-eighths in 1:03.

Calgary—Half mile in 50%.

Edicinery—Half mile in 50%.

King Dixon—Three-quarters in 1:18%.

Jek Elis—Five-eighths in 1:04.

Longhand—Mile in 1:44.

La Reim-Hindoo—Five-eigh

THE THOROUGHBRED AND THE ARMY.

New, York, March 20.—John F. Ryan, of Montreal, was here recently and brought some interesting news about horse breeding in Canada.

"The Canadian Bureau thoroughbred sires." said he, "are not only producing nearly all the helf-breds in Canada, but about 50 per cent. of the thoroughbred foals, and this percentage will be higher next year. Of eighteen two-year-olds eligible for the Nursery Stakes at Blue Bonnets, thirteen are by Bureau sires or out of mares imported in foal by the Bureau. Of thirty-three yearlings in Montreal and vicinity, twenty-seven are by Bureau sires or out of mares imported by the Bureau. Away from the large centers the Bureau is producing nearly all the thoroughbred foals. But this branch of the work is only incidental to the half-bred production and for every thoroughbred foal there are forty or fifty half-breds.

"The thoroughbred sire is making good in every is only incidental to the half-bred production and for every thoroughbred foal there are forty or fifty inalf-breds.

"The thoroughbred sire is making good in every part of Canada. This success can only be obtained, however, by a systematic inspection of all sires placed; by continuous and abundant advertising, by the monthly publication of educational literature and by careful selection of mares.

"The new United States Cavalry and Artillery Remount Association will do a great deal for the thoroughbred in this country, because it will advertise him and educate the people nationally regarding his high place in the horse breeding industry and his value as an aid to national defense. The Thoroughbred and Remount Club, formed in Canada about three years ago and which works hand in hand with the Bureau, has done wonders in pawing the way for the introduction of thoroughbred sires in places where he was unknown. This club collects all the news regarding the thoroughbred cross and remeunts from all over the world and sends such news broadast throughout Canada. If there is a farmer or breeder in Canada who does not know what Europe and the rest of the world is doing along these lines, it is his own fault.

"These men are taught that there is only one way to solve the remount problem and that is to breed remounts; that the only sure way to breed remounts; that the only sure way to breed remounts by means of the thoroughbred cross. The Canadian Bureau was the first institution in America to hook up the army and the remount business with the thoroughbred, and that is the strongest alliance possible and one that cannot lose.

"It is a death blow to an extremist to find out

LEADING AMERICAN TWO-YEAR-OLDS SINCE 1870

The table published below gives the names and performances of the two-year-olds that have headed the winning lists of their respective years from 1870 down to 1911, inclusive. It will be observed that such stars as Harry Bassett, Joe Daniels and Tom Bowling had no chance to accumulate anything like the great sums that subsequently fell to the annual leader. Stakes of considerable value were few and purses small in their days. It was not until after such rich stakes as the Futurity, Matron, Great American and similar events had been instituted that it became possible for a two-year-old to win a fortune.

In money won, Domino stands far in advance of all American two-year-olds. This splendid horse was lucky in his two-year-old career in that most of the big stakes he won that year were at their meridian in value. Had another two-year-old in the succeeding year won identically the same stakes it would not have won near so much money. Domino's great total was achieved in the following races:

won near so much money. Domino's great total was:

that he is jeopardizing plans for national defense. Take the case of former Governor Hughes. How long could he stand up now against a national movement to solve the remount problem of the United States? If the chief of staff of your array demanded thoroughbred sires and a state governor wanted to chase all these sires to Europe, which may would wia if, the nation knew all the facts? I wonder what former Governor Hughes thinks of his work now that his country's army is crying for the produce of the thoroughbred?.

"It is no easy matter to educate the whole nation, and it cannot be done in a few days, but it is possible if the effort be sufficiently persistent. The man on the farm must be taught that the thorough bred transmits energy, and that energy is the greatest thing in the world. Take that out of the universe and there is nothing left but ether. He must be snown that there is as much difference between the thoroughbred and the fat breed as there is between authracite and soft coal.

"He must be told that the thoroughbred is necessary for national defense, and at the same time he must know how much money he is going to receive for remounts providing he produces them, for while you may get a farmer to cast one eye on his country's flag, you may be sure that he has the other on his bankbook.

"Every civilized country in the world safeguards and protects the thoroughbred sire. France has 559 thoroughbreds in its bureau. Germany produces 40, 4000 remounts every year. In these countries remount reserves are doing all kinds of work. In France, when a mounted squadron goes along the country road the plow horse in the field cocks his ears at the sound of the bugle, for that plow horse is a trained remount, held in reserve. France will spend $4,500,000 in 1912 on bureau work. She has been doing this for years.

"There is one place where the horse is safe from all encroachments, and that is the army. There are some persons who think that the army. There are some persons who think that the army. There are some persons

MYSTERY IN WARFARE'S FAVORITISM.

Mystery in Warfare's favoritism.

Wonderful tales are rife about what Warfare, the new Lincolnshire favorite vice Spanish Prince, can do with the "dear departed" Eton Boy at their handicap imposts. So remarkable are these yarns that the suspicion arises whether a little Oriental imagination has not been at work, as so frequently happens in the case of "private wonders" in big handicaps. Warfare belongs to this category. For a potential Lincolnshire winner his form is wretched. Seven failures, some of an abject character, comprised his record when he went to Warwick in November and smashed up Luxembourg and company in a trumpery plate, and the utmost recommendation of him on the "book" is that this last race was his best, and suggested improvement in the future. But when this is admitted and duly allowed for, what are such animals as Luxembourg and the other victims of Warfare when judged by Lincolnshire Handicap standards? They could hardly win the race with a "postage stamp up." as the saying is. Consequently it behooves us to examine the Warfare question from other aspects. Back in the "good old days" of Fred Swindell, say, a case like this would have presented no mystery, but the present generation of owners seem to be more impatient in their methods. Not one in fifty thinks of deliberately putting a horse by for a year or over for a particular coup. Something of the "get-rick-quick" plan now enters into the business.

Mystery and imagination are each powerful magnifiers, and together they would make a Mont Blanc out of a worm cast. Warfare is a mystery horse to the extent of lacking all "book" justification for his favoritism, and if imagination has not been playing tricks with his abilities, and his connections have not been deceived respecting them, he presents a case of an animal improving out of all knowledge from three or four years of age. Such transformations are not uncommon among younger horses, but it rarely happens that a three-year-old makes abnormal progress between Manchester and Lincoln.—

JIM BASEY AGAIN IN FORM

JOSEPH SCHREIBER'S GOOD COLT SCORES IN CHIEF RACE AT JUAREZ.

Beats Thistle Belle in Closing Strides of Handicap -High Wind Again Prevails, Making Fast Time Out of the Question.

El Paso, Tex., March 20.—Good-priced winners, well backed by the public, accounted for most of the purses at Juarez today. Bob Lynch was the only favorite to score. A high wind blew, making fast time out of the question, although the track was at its best.

John Hurie, against whose chances ten to one was laid, won the first race. There was extensive support for several of the contestants in this race, notably Denotek, which faced the starter for the first time.

The handicap at five and one-half furlongs found Pride of Lismore, with his burden of 125 pounds, ruling the public choice. He temporarily gladdened the hearts of his backers by opening his usual lead on his opponents, but he weakened a sixteenth from the finish. Thistle Belle took the lead away from him momentarily, then Jim Basey came like a whirlwind and beat her in the last stride. Jim Basey showed sudden improvement as compared with his preceding start, coincident with extensive backing.

G. H. Keene, who has been saddling winners with considerable regularity of late, took the sixth race with Zahra.

Jocky Estep was suspended for the remainder of the meeting for disobedience at the post in the first race.

DATES SOON TO BE SETTLED

Meeting of the Kentucky State Racing Commission Called for Coming Saturday.

Lexington, Ky., March 20.—The Kentucky State Racing Commission will meet here next Saturday morning. Chairman E. F. Clay wired Secretary J. P. Johnston today that he would leave Eustace. Fla., for his home near Paris this evening and instructed him to call the commission together on Saturday.

It is expected that there will be a full attendance, Messrs, Young, Camden, Daingerfield and Long at being in Kentucky at present. Mr. Camden was in Lexington today and said he would attend the meeting, Representatives of the Latonia, Louisville and Lexington associations, will, it is understood, be present to present applications for dates and to express their preferences for the officials to be appointed by the commission.

Aimee, the highest tried two-year-old in the stable of James P. Ross, unseated her rider, ran away, became entangled in the bridle reins, fell and broke her neck at the Kentucky Association course this morning. Aimee was by Golden Maxim—Santa Catalina, a good race mare by Spender and in her yearing tryout last fall ran a quarter in :23.

Manager W. Stewart Hunter today reported four foals at Johnson N. Camden's Hartland stud. There is a chestnut filly (sister to Mr. Golightly), by St. Simonion II.—Sweet Clover, and three bay coits by Oddfellow, they being out of Rochelle (dam of Musical Slipper (half sister to Peter Pan, Early and Often, and Von Tromp). Manager Hunter says the coit out of Rochelle is a beautiful type of the horoughbred.

NOTES OF THE TURE.

Jockey C. H. Shilling was married at Cleveland, Ohio, Tuesday evening to Miss Jessie Roth of that city.

Fred Williams, one of the most capable steeplechase riders in America, has been signed to school and ride Charles Kohler's jumpers in France. He will be a passenger on a steamer departing from New York in a few days.

Harry Birkenruth, a jockey well known on the American and European turf, is dead in London, according to advices received by relatives at Logansport, Ind., as the result of injuries received in a fall while racing at Vienna in 1910.

Harry La Montagne, who is racing a successful stable of crosscountry horses in France, has purchased from Samuel Ross of Washington, D. C., the steeplechaser Rosshampton. Arrangements have been made to ship the horses from New York on Saturday to Maisons Laffitte, where the La Montagne string is quartered in charge of the American trainer, Preston M. Burch.

SELECTIONS FOR THE ENGLISH CLASSICS.

The annual anticipations of the London Sportsman's special commissioner, with regard to the classic races of the year, are made from a study of pedigrees, subject always to the individual promise of the animals concerned. On this basis, his conclusions of the animals concerned. On this scale clusions are:

Two Thousand Guineas—Absurd, Lom, Coriander, with the possibility that Coriander, if his forejoints do not interfere, may be the best of the year.
Derby—Lomond, Lom, Montrose II. The next best is Cylgad, but no chance is conceded to White Star.
One Thousand Guineas—Combination, Belle Isle, Alone Only Thousand Coo, Combination, Belle Isle.
Oaks—Bill and Coo, Combination, Belle Isle.
St. Leger—Lomond, Lom, Coriander.

J. J. HYLAND SAILS FOR GERMANY.

New York, March 20.—John J. Hyland, who sailed for Germany today to train the big racing stable of Baron Oppenheim, secured the engagement through the strong recommendation of August Belmont, whose horses he handled for many years, Mr. Hyland had a chance to go abroad two years ago, but the ofter was not sufficiently tempting. He said today before departure that he did not relish leaving the American turf, but that he could not afford to turn down the contract offered by the moted German nobleman. He is enjoying robust health and is ready for hard work. He will have more than fifty thoroughbreds in his care, which means a strenuous campaign.
